Band Council Meetings – Guidelines for Observers

Saik'uz Band Council meetings are open to any Saik'uz membership and your Saik'uz Chief and Council welcome you to sit as observers at any council meetings.

Some meetings require an in-camera session, or confidential or sensitive discussions may take place in which the meeting Chair will ask all observers to leave.

For the meetings to run smoothly and without interruption, a few guidelines have been created and listed below. All observers must:

- refrain from participating in the transmission of information to council members or others
- remain quiet during council discussions
- limit any interruptions including coming and going during the meeting
- turn off cell phones and other electronic devices
- not record or photograph any portion of the meeting

Please sign below as your consent to abide by the guidelines as set above.

Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Signature: _____

NOTE: should anyone choose not to abide by the guidelines as set out in this document they will be asked to leave the meeting by the Chair.

Reminder: all letters, requests & presentations MUST have been submitted 5 days prior to the first day of the council meeting, failure to submit 5 days prior will have to wait until the next month's council meeting.
